

We are going to:

Physical Development:

make up a dragon dance cutting and sticking paper dragons moving under, over and through Communication and Language:

turn to your partner and say 'Hello' answer' Why is red an important colour in Chinese New Year celebrations'

Expressive arts and design:

create a dragon dance
make a dragon loop puppet
Paint a Chinese lantern

Literacy:

identify front page, title and author
Learn picture cards j,v,y,w, x and z continue to Fred talk

Understanding of the world:

know how the years got their animal names
Know that children get gifts in red envelopes.

Personal, Social, Emotional Development:

understand how we look after property in nursery

Maths: Number 4

Place 4 objects in a 5 frame.
Build a tower of 4
Compare weight use light and heavy Count 4 pictorially

LO: Know about Chinese New Year

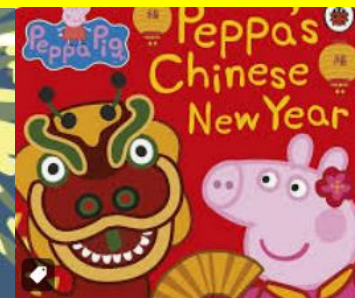

Key event:

The Chinese New Year

Key Question:

Why do children get red envelopes?

Key reading

Key facts

The Chinese years are named after animals

Red is a lucky colour

At New Year Chinese children receive red envelopes containing money or sweets

Vocabulary

lantern

luck celebrate

chopsticks