

LO: I can explore how people help us in our community

What we are going to learn:

Physical Development

to travel along a plank and climb over a frame to use glue and scissors

Personal social and emotional development

Understand the Golden Rule 'we are honest'

Understanding the world

To understand that we live in a community and there are people who can help us.

Expressive art and design to take part in community hero role play to use junk to make an emergency vehicle

Communication and Language to answer the question 'who helps us in the community?'

Literacy

to listen well to our visiting speaker to begin to identify rhyming words in the story

Maths

to count objects of different sizes, subitise to 3 Order Numicon to 3 and match numerals and quantities to 3

Key Person

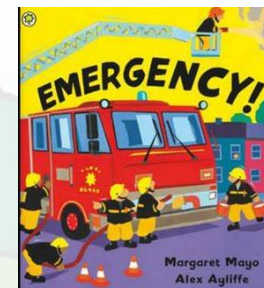

Vocabulary

community
emergency
police officer
fire fighter
paramedic
vehicle
siren
safety service
uniform

Key reading

Emergency!
By Margaret Mayo

Key facts

Key facts:

A community is a group of people living in the same area.
There are people who we can call to help us in an emergency.
The number we can call is 999 to contact the police,
fire fighters or paramedics.