

We are going to learn to: Know about Chinese New Year

Physical Development:

Learn and perform dragon dance
Cut along straight lines to make a Chinese lantern

Communication and Language:

Explain what makes a healthy lunch
Answer questions about a picture in a full sentence
Explain what a Chinese New Year tradition is

Expressive arts and design:

Create a firework picture
To make a Chinese dragon puppet
To make a Chinese lantern

Literacy:

Reading words with special friends
Hold and write a sentence

Understanding of the world:

Know how Chinese people prepare for new year
How Chinese New Year is celebrated.

Personal, Social, Emotional Development:

Knowing what a goal is Setting myself a simple goal

Maths: Number 8!

Recognise, write and count to 8.
Count out 8 objects from a larger group.
Order numbers 0-8
Find different ways of making 8 such as 4 and 4 or 6 and 2.
Know 1 more and 1 less to 8

Key event:

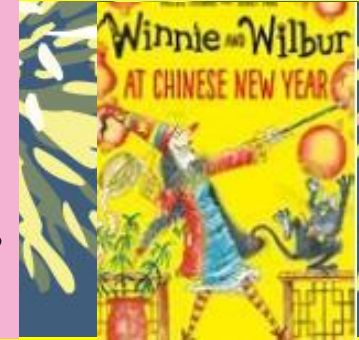

The Chinese New Year

Chinese workshop

Key Question:

What are the traditions of the Chinese New Year?

Key reading

Vocabulary

tradition

celebrate

banquet

lantern

luck

celebrate

chopsticks

Key facts

Chinese New Year can be in January or February

The Chinese years are named after animals

Red is a lucky colour

At New Year Chinese children receive red envelopes containing money or sweets

They have special food to celebrate